

The petition of James Touchstone, and one hundred citizens of Cecil county, praying a law to tax the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad capital stock, and to compel that company to pay into the Treasury the amount due the State by it.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Eareckson presented the petition of James D. Wilson, Richard Jackson, James E. Graham, Joel Clements, and thirty other citizens of Queen Anne's county, asking for a law to better protect partridges in said county.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on that subject.

Mr. Streett presented the petition of Jacob Wann, asking for a pension.

Also,

The petition of William Wann, asking for a pension.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Chaisty presented the petition of Mary Ann Zimmerman, widow of Henry H. Zimmerman, asking to be restored to the State pension rolls.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Dunbar presented a memorial from Dr. James H. Miles, R. J. Bean, and sundry citizens of St. Mary's county, asking the passage of a law subjecting the capital stock and property of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to taxation, and also to require said company to pay into the State Treasury the amounts found and decreed by the Courts to be justly due the State, and wrongfully and illegally withheld by said company.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Young, of Washington presented the petition of A. D. Grim, and other citizens of Washington county, asking the passage of a bill to protect fish in Israel Creek, in Washington county.

Which was read and referred to the Washington county delegation.

Also,

The petition of E. L. Boteler, and other citizens of Washington county, protesting against the passage of a bill prohibiting the sale of liquors in said county.